Historical View May 29, 1964 – May 20, 2018

Reverend Dr. Henry S. Moore, Sr. (Deceased)
Founder and Organizer~ May 29, 1964 - November 22, 1987

Reverend Dr. Henry S. Moore, Sr. (1914-1995), was born in Conway, SC, to the Reverend Philip and Sister Maggie Moore*. He was educated in the public school system and graduated from Whittimore Senior High School. He accepted Christ at an early age and was united with the Hemingway Chapel A.M.E. Church.

Pastor Moore was married to the former Rehodonia Dixon*. To this union two sons were born, Benjamin and Henry S. Moore, Jr., and one daughter, Joann (Moore) Lewis. In 1940, he moved his family to Washington, D.C., where he united with the New Bethany Baptist Church pastored by Reverend John J. Koger*. He was baptized by immersion in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

In 1942, Pastor Moore was appointed to the Deacon Board and was ordained in 1943. He served as the President of the Baptist Training Union, Chairman of the Deacon Board, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and President of the Pastor's Aide Club. He organized a Bible Class, a Willing Workers' Club, and sang in the choir for several years.

While serving as Chairman of the Deacon Board, Pastor Moore heard a call from God to preach His Word. In 1951, he preached his initial sermon and was licensed by Pastor Koger*. In 1956, he enrolled in the Washington Baptist Seminary and was ordained in 1957. During that year, Pastor Koger* appointed Reverend Moore as the Assistant Pastor; he served faithfully until 1964.

While serving as Assistant Pastor at New Bethany Baptist Church, Pastor Moore was led by the Holy Spirit to start a Branch of Zion; the first location was at 413 Fourth Street, N.W., in Washington, D.C.

After many prayers and much meditation, the first worship service of Central Baptist Mission was held on April 5, 1964. On that day, God's spirit led seven persons to join the mission--Sister Rehodonia Moore (his wife), Brother Henry S. Moore, Jr., (his son), Sister Margie Spain (his aunt),* Sister Hazel V. Hardy, Sister Marsha Crumer, Sister Lucille Gates,* and Sister Bernice Wallace Harmon.

As God added to the mission, Pastor Moore saw the need to organize Central Baptist Church. This worship service was held on May 29, 1964. Since the church was in a redevelopment area, Pastor Moore set out to find a new location for the church. He located and purchased a building at 2417 Naylor Road, S.E., Washington, D.C. On November 1, 1964, the first worship service was held at this edifice.

During the first four years (1964-1968), 18 auxiliaries were organized, including the Deacon and Deaconess Boards, the Board of Directors, Bible Class, Church Training Union, Senior Citizens Club, the Food Bank, and many other helpful entities. Reverend Robert Howard* served as the first Assistant to the Pastor until he was called back to his home church, Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church; and the first two sons of Central were borne--Reverend Samuel A. Ross* and Reverend Randolph Brunson*. Reverend Samuel A. Ross* served as the Assistant to the Pastor and Reverend Randolph Brunson* served as Minister to the Sick.

2417 Naylor Road, S.E., Washington, D.C.

Some of Central's other first appointed officers were: Mother of Central, Sister Margie Spain*; Deacon of Central, Oscar Woodward*; Chairman of the Deacon Board, Amos Jackson*; Chairlady of Deaconess Board, Nettie Nixon*; Chairman of Board of Directors, Deacon James R. Revell*; the first female Chairman of Board of Directors, Sister Jean L. Easter; and Chairman of the Board of Christian Education, Deacon William Neal.

There were 25 spirit-filled brothers on the Deacon Board, many ordained by Pastor Moore: Deacons Audry Bennett, Jerry Calhoun*, Charlie Campbell, William Crudup*, Eugene Edmondson*, George A. Fitzgerald, James Fitzgerald*, George C. Gilbert, George K. Gilbert*, John Harnett, Amos Jackson* (Chairman), Lewis Jackson, Preston Jones, Timothy Jones, John Kendrick*, Perry Lee*, Wilbert Lewis, Ernest Mathis*, William Neal, James Palmer*, John H. Parker*, James R. Revell*, Fletcher Rosser*, Benjamin Sanders, Jr., and Oscar Woodward.* Four deacons still remain at Central—Deacons Audry Bennett, Charlie Campbell, Preston Jones, and Benjamin Sanders, Jr. The remaining deacons have moved on to other churches or are ministers or pastoring at other churches.

As God continued to bless Central, it became apparent that a larger facility was needed. The Pastor and church located and purchased property at 2252 Minnesota Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. Pastor Moore and others did many things to beautify the building and make it a comfortable edifice.

As God sent more laborers into the vineyard, four persons were called to the Gospel Ministry: Reverend Earl A. Ross (son of Reverend Samuel A. Ross*), Reverend George C. Gilbert, Evangelist Hazel V. Hardy, and Reverend William Neal.

On March 27, 1977, a Mortgage Burning Worship Service was held for 2252 Minnesota Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C.; it was a glorious occasion in the history of Central Baptist Church. As the mortgage was burned, we could see the need to expand or relocate. After looking at several properties, the church settled on the location at 3160 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. On the first Sunday in December 1977, the church joyfully relocated there.

For the first 14 years at this location, God continued to add more laymen and ministers to the fold. The ministers were Reverend Smiley Sapp, Evangelist Ruth Sapp, Reverends Ray H. Bolen*, Charles Wilson, George A. Fitzgerald, James Sturdivant, John H. Parker*, Richard West, Reginald Sanders *, Stanley

Kelley*, William H. Spencer, Jr., Johnny Ferguson, Marion H. Pierce, Jr., and Arthur Buchanan. Some of the remaining Ministers are pastoring at other churches and some have united with other churches.

In 1979, Pastor Moore organized the Men's and Women's Departments. Deacon Audry O. Bennett was President of the Men's Department and Sister Geneva B. Williams was the President of the Women's Department. Both departments worked diligently for the Lord. Pastor Moore also organized the Youth Department. Sister Geneva B. Williams was also the Directress of the Youth Department. On each fifth Sunday, the youth rendered spirit-led and spirit-filled worship services.

In May 1982, God saw fit to take from our midst Reverend Randolph Brunson and on August 25, 1983, our beloved First Lady Rehodonia Moore. We truly miss them dearly, but God loved them best.

On December 16, 1984, Pastor Moore earned an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity Degree for his contribution in educating so many of his associates in the Gospel Ministry. This degree was conferred upon him by the Reverend J. Haskell Mayo, Bishop of the 16th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal (A.M.E.) Church.

Pastor Moore faithfully served Central Baptist Church as its Organizer, Pastor, and Spiritual Leader for 23 1/2 years. On November 22, 1987, he retired from this pastorate.

On December 10, 1987, the church elected Assistant Pastor John H. Parker* to become the Pastor-Elect of Central Baptist Church. At that time, the title of Pastor Emeritus was bestowed upon Pastor Moore.

On March 27, 1988, Reverend John H. Parker* was installed as Pastor of Central Baptist Church. This celebration was highlighted with three spirit-filled services. This was indeed a grand occasion in the history of Central Baptist Church.

Reverend John H. Parker, Pastor (Deceased)
March 27, 1988 - February 12, 2012

Pastor John H. Parker (1939-2012) was born in Monroeville, AL, to Reverend and Sister M. H. Parker*. At an early age, Pastor Parker joined New Nazareth Baptist Church in nearby Deatsville, AL, and was baptized by immersion in water in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost. He attended public schools in the area. Pastor Parker married the former Diane Elois Harvey; to the union two lovely daughters were born, Chandra and Lynn.

Upon graduating from high school, Pastor Parker joined the U.S. Army where he served honorably for 22 years.

After retirement from the U.S. Army in October 1980, Pastor Parker moved to Washington, D.C. and immediately united with Central Baptist Church. In 1981, he was appointed to the Deacon Board and was ordained on October 10, 1982.

In 1984, God called Pastor Parker into the Ministry to preach the Gospel. The Reverend Dr. Henry S. Moore, Sr., licensed him. On April, 11, 1987, he was ordained and installed as the Assistant Pastor of Central Baptist Church. On December 10, 1987, he became Pastor-Elect and on March 27, 1988, was installed as the Pastor of Central Baptist Church. In June 1988, he resigned from the U.S. Postal Service to serve as full-time pastor.

Pastor Parker attended Prince George's Community College and the University of the District of Columbia. On May 25, 1996, he graduated from the Washington Bible College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biblical Studies and Urban Ministries.

Pastor Parker was the source of much pride and admiration in the church and the community for his profoundness as a Gospel preacher, his dynamic leadership, and most of all, for the record he established in bringing lost souls to Christ.

On May 27, 1988, Central Baptist Church held its First Anniversary Banquet at the LaFontaine Bleu Caterers in Landover, MD. This affair was held in honor of our beloved former Pastor and Organizer, Reverend Dr. Henry S. Moore, Sr.*, who retired November 22, 1987.

On October 22, 1988, Reverend Samuel A. Ross departed this life. Many other members are now deceased, and we thank God for their love, work, and fellowship while they were here with us.

On March 26, 1989, Pastor Parker celebrated his first anniversary as Pastor of Central Baptist Church at the 10:45 a.m. worship service. Much joy was spread on that day for the Pastor, his family, and the church. Pastor Parker's older brother, Reverend Mack H. Parker*, Pastor of The Good Ship Baptist Church in Millbrook, AL, preached a spirit-filled sermon.

Faith and prayer have truly been our church reward under Pastor Parker's capable and spiritual leadership. In October 1989, the mortgage for Central Baptist Church at 3160 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C., was paid in full. On November 11, 1989, a Mortgage Burning Worship Service was held commemorating this glorious affair.

In 1989, we were blessed with the ordination of four additional deacons to The Board--Deacons George Miles, Lindsay Williams, Walter Weaver, and Bernard Jackson. Also, Deacon Phillip Green* united with the church and was appointed to The Board.

During the week of April 23-27, 1990, Pastor Parker preached his first revival at Old Way Baptist Church, located at 1335 Michigan Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C.

In August 1991, five ministers were added to the Gospel Ministry--Ministers Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr., Reginald K. Thornton, Bernard Jackson, Charles Russell, and Lewis Jackson. God continued to bless Central Baptist Church.

Also during 1988-1992, Pastor Parker made many worthy contributions. He organized the Henry S. Moore Inspirational Choir, a New Members Orientation Class, an annual church cookout and a nine-member Trustee Board. He also implemented a scholarship fund for college-bound students, computerized the church office, established a "unified" church budget, organized a Pastoral Advisory Committee, a Food Share Program, established a Cub Scout pack, and a noon-day Bible Study.

In February 1993, an Ordination Service was held for three more deacons--William Lewis*, McLloyd Mansfield, and Willie Rawls, Sr.* Also in 1993, to encourage more participation in the Youth Department and the Men's Department, the Youth Department was changed to the Youth Ministry and the Men's Department was changed to the Men's Ministry; and an Outreach Ministry was also established. In keeping with other auxiliaries and to encompass a broader prospective of outreach programs, on October 9, 1994, the Women's Department became the Women's Ministry.

Also in 1994, approximately 3.2 acres of land was acquired on Linda Lane and Old Branch Avenue in Camp Springs, MD, for the building of a new edifice for Central Baptist Church.

On January 20, 1995, our Founder and Organizer, Pastor Henry S. Moore, Sr., left this earthly home and went home to be with the Father in Heaven. Pastor Moore gave up so much to obtain and sustain Central Baptist Church and his hard work will never go in vain. We at Central Baptist Church shall never forget him. His love will always remain in our hearts; we honor his legacy, and his spirit will always culminate around us. Although we will miss him greatly, we know he is at peace with the Lord.

On June 13, 1995, Pastor Parker appointed Minister Lewis Jackson as Assistant to the Pastor to share some of the duties in his absence.

In December 1995, Pastor Parker changed the Trustee Board to the Trustee Committee and changed all other auxiliaries to Ministries, with the exception of the Deacon Board.

On September 1, 1996, an Ordination Service was held for Minister Lewis Jackson at his home church, Macedonia Baptist Church, in Heathsville, VA. Many prayers went out to Reverend Jackson on that day, and the church as a whole has been richly blessed because of his ordination. Reverend Jackson later became Pastor of his home church.

In 1997 and 1998, five members were called to the Gospel Ministry. On July 13, 1997, Deacon William Crudup* and on August 10, 1997, Brother Alan Anderson preached their Trial Sermons. God blessed us in a mighty way! Also on September 7, 1997, Pastor Parker invited Evangelist Gwendolyn Leftwich to the pulpit--the first woman under his leadership to join the fold of the Ministerial Staff. On November 16, 1997, Sister Miranda Williams preached her Trial Sermon and was the first woman under Pastor Parker's leadership to be licensed as a minister. What a joyous occasion it was to have these two women added to the Ministerial Staff. God further blessed us on March 8, 1998, when Sister Patricia Ruffin preached her Trial Sermon.

We thank God for the wisdom he provided Pastor Parker as he led this congregation onward to greater heights while he preached God's mighty Word. On December 19, 1998, Minister Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr., was ordained at the New Home Baptist Church in Landover, MD. Also in this same year, additional property was acquired on Linda Lane and Old Branch Avenue--the land needed to supplement the building site.

On July 10, 1999, the Constitution and Bylaws were ratified, and the mission of Central Baptist Church was established and has become a part of our 7:30 a.m. and our 10:45 a.m. worship services.

On April 30, 2000, the fifth Sunday services were changed to Family Day. What a joyous and spiritual fellowship we enjoyed as we celebrated the occasion on that day.

God is continually sending laborers to the vineyard. On February 4, 2001, Reverend Braxon Williams* received the right-hand-of-fellowship and was invited to join the Ministerial Staff. On March 25, 2001, Sister Lynda Brown-Hall; on April 29, 2001, Sister Sadie M. Martin; and, on May 27, 2001, Sister Lena Douglas, respectively, preached their Trial Sermons and also became a part of the Ministerial Staff.

On November 27, 2001, to further spread the gospel of Jesus Christ, Pastor Parker established an Evangelistic Outreach Ministry, which focuses on evangelism, witnessing, and discipleship.

On January 28, 2003, a new choir structure was initiated and implemented by Pastor Parker and our Minister of Music, Sister Devoyne Young: A Women's Choir that combined the Senior Choir and Gospelites; the Henry S. Moore Inspiration Mass Choir that combined Henry S. Moore Inspirational Choir, Young Adult Choir, and the Mass Choir; Male Chorus; and a newly organized Youth Choir and Heavenly Angels Choir.

Also in January 2003, the fifth Sunday, Family Day, came to a close and the fifth Sunday service returned to the two worship services.

On March 9, 2003, 21 graduating members of the Evangelistic Outreach Ministry were presented to the church at the 7:30 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services. The newly-trained members of this Ministry now go out and seek lost souls for Christ.

On March 30, 2003, the Henry S. Moore Inspirational Mass Choir, now one of Central's largest choirs, was presented to the church as it sang with such vigor and with the spirit of the Lord. Also on May 11, 2003, the Youth Choir was presented to the church.

On September 20, 2003, at 10:30 a.m., the ground breaking ceremony was held for Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs, MD. The theme was Preserving the Past While Building the Future; Scripture: Proverbs 24:27. Prince George's County Executives and other dignitaries participated in our celebration. It was a grand momentous occasion in the history of Central Baptist Church. God continued to bless Central Baptist Church.

On July 16, 2004, Deacons Timothy Jones, Chairman of the Deacon Board, Willie Rawls, Sr.*, Vice-Chairman of the Deacon Board, Wilbert Lewis, Secretary of the Deacon Board and Project Manager of the building site, and Trustee Francis Bryant signed the official loan papers for construction of the new edifice at Linda Lane and Old Branch Avenue in Camp Springs, MD.

On July 10, 2005, the Central family held its last worship service at 3160 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C., and on the next Sunday, July 17, 2005, at 10:00 a.m., we began our worship service at the Orr Elementary School located at 2200 Minnesota Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C.

We then began the process of selling our edifice at 3160 Pennsylvania Avenue. As God provided us with a purchaser of our old building on July 29, 2005, the papers were signed and our old building was now sold. On November 27, 2005, we held our last Sunday worship service at Orr Elementary School. As we were looking forward to moving in our new edifice, we were thankful to the school administrator for providing us with a place to worship while our new church was being erected.

Finally, after two years of building, the new church was now ready for us to move in; and on December 3, 2005, we held our Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for the Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs, located at 5600 Old Branch Avenue, Camp Springs, MD. It was a glorious occasion in the name of the Lord. On December 4, 2005, we held our first Sunday worship services in our new building at 7:30 a.m. and 10:45 a.m., with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. We praised God for blessing us so bountifully.

In January 2006, an Hour-of-Power Prayer Service was established to be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m.

On February 26, 2006, at the 10:45 a.m. worship service, we held our first Baptism at our new church; we observed the baptismal pool where eight candidates were baptized.

The dedication of our church to God began on May 15-19, 2006, with a week of evening services, culminating on Sunday, May 21, 2006, at 10:45 a.m. with a Homecoming Service. The theme was Praising God for a Marvelous Thing! Psalms 98 and 118:23. Dr. Earl A. Ross, a son of Central and Pastor of Randall Memorial Baptist Church, preached at the service.

On July 30, 2006, at the 10:45 a.m. service, we held our First Annual All States Day. Its purpose is to share the uniqueness and diversity of a particular state, as well as establish an Annual Mortgage Burning Fundraiser. North Carolina was the host state and the event was sponsored by the Deacon Board. Bishop Jessie Jones and his choir of Rouse's Abundant Life Ministries, Ayden, NC, were our guests.

On December 17, 2006, at the 10:45 a.m. service, the Music Ministry presented its first Christmas Cantata, Born to Set Us Free, consisting of three spiritual acts, music, dance, and spiritual discourse, which were magnificently blessed.

Also in 2006, three ministers united with the church--Reverends George A. Hinton, Jr., Geoffrey Thomas, and Dr. Mary Ann Sykes*—and six deacons united with the church from other churches--Deacons Herman Jones, Maurice Williams, T. Edison Crabbe, Sr., Elmer Jackson*, Walter Williams, and Rudolph Hodges.

In February 2007, Reverend Shirley Darden became a member of Central; later in the year she was invited to the pulpit.

On May 12, 2007, the Golden Light Seniors Ministry hosted its First Senior Banquet and Annual Day Worship Service on May 13, 2007. The Ministry was originally organized by Reverend Dr. Henry S. Moore, Sr.* as the Seniors Club, and the name was later changed to Golden Light Seniors Ministry.

On July 29, 2007, we celebrated our Second Annual All States Day, hosted by the States of Virginia and West Virginia, at the 10:00 a.m. service. The theme was Virginia Is for Lovers and God Is Love; Scripture: 1 John 4:7-8. Reverend Dr. David A. Cunningham, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Colonial Beach, VA, and his choir were our guests.

To show Pastor Parker our love as our leader, on December 9, 2007, a Pastor's Appreciation Day was held in his honor. Sermonettes were preached by Reverend Lincoln Burruss, Jr. and Minister Lynda Brown-Hall at the 7:30 a.m. service followed by a reception in the Fellowship Hall; at the 11:15 a.m. service the sermonettes continued with Reverend Ray Bolen* and Minister Miranda Williams. This day was one of glorifying God for his greatness of having Pastor Parker as our Spiritual leader and a man who loves all of his flock.

Also, in 2007, the Kericho, Kenya, Foreign Mission Project opened the doors of The Kipsitet Baptist Church Medical Clinic in Kipsitet, Kenya (East Africa). The Clinic is funded by donations and an annual fundraiser breakfast and to date has seen over 237,000 people who have been treated for various illnesses. The proceeds are used to purchase medicines for the clinic and its preservation. The Mission Partners are Reverend Larry W. Lyles; Fort Washington Baptist Church, Pastor Darin V. On March 29, 2008, six Deacons-in-Training--Francis P. Bryant, Robert A. DuPree, Clifford E. Hendking, Burnut L. Lane, Donald L. Tuck, and Jonathan Williams--were catechized by deacons from surrounding churches. They all passed the catechism, leading to the Deacon Ordination Installation Service that was held on March 30, 2008, at 4:00 p.m. It was a day highlighted with Pastor Larry Philip McCray of Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, Temple Hills, MD, delivering the message; the Ordination Prayer was given by Pastor John H. Parker, and the charge to the deacons given by the Chairman of the Deacon Board, Deacon Timothy Jones. Those deacons became members of the Deacon Board with all rights as other deacons of Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs. It was a glorious Ordination Service--the third installation under the leadership of Pastor Parker.

God blessed Central in providing us with a glorious leader. On April 20, 2008, Pastor John H. Parker celebrated his 20th Anniversary as our Pastor--the first time celebrating it separately from the Church's Anniversary. What a glorious day of celebration! The day was highlighted with Reverend Patrick J. Walker, Pastor, The New Macedonia Baptist Church, Washington, D.C., who preached at the 7:30 a.m. service, and presided by Minister Miranda Williams, the first woman minister to be licensed by Pastor Parker; Pastor Parker's brother, Pastor Mack H. Reflections of Pastor Parker were given by three members of the church at each service. It was truly a day of honoring Pastor Parker, with our First Lady, Sister Diane H. Parker, daughters, Chandra and Lynne Parker, and grandson, Isaiah. We give God all the praises.

On August 31, 2008, at the 10:00 a.m. service, we celebrated our Third Annual All States Day--the District of Columbia was the host. It was given full rights as a state in participating in our Fundraiser All States Day. Theme was Disciples of Christ Standing Boldly on God's Promises; Scripture: 2 Chronicles 7:14. Native Washingtonian Reverend Dr. James L. Martin, Sr., Pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church, Lanham, MD, and the Anointed Voices were our guests. It was well attended by many members and nonmembers.

The theme was A More Perfect Way of Building God's Kingdom: Jesus; Scripture: Matthew 6:33. The Reverend Dr. James H. Cokley, Pastor, Cherry Hill Missionary Baptist Church, Conway, SC, and his choir were our guests.

Reverend Dr. Regretta Ruffin, Pastor of New Saint Paul Baptist Church, Washington, D.C., presented the message.

Also, in 2009, the Young Adult Women's Ministry was organized. The purpose of the group is to provide opportunities for young women to share what they have heard, seen, and what they think will make a difference in the lives of other young women as they transition into fully active, participating, adult Christian women.

In January 2010, the Jewels of God began their Ministry. The Ministry was established to foster a "Christian self-esteem" for girls ages 10-14. The sessions consist of Bible Study and discussions about establishing a place in the Kingdom of God and being comfortable in that place. Deaconess Deborah Crabbe is the Chairperson and Sister Martha Brooks, the Co-Chairperson.

On August 29, 2010, at the 10:00 a.m. service, we celebrated our Fifth Annual All States Day--the State of Maryland was the host. The Reverend Dr. Welton Fields, Jr., Pastor, Southern Friendship Missionary Baptist Church, Temple Hills, MD, and Salvation Music Ministry were our guests.

Also, in August 2010, the Intercessory Prayer Ministry of Central Baptist Church of Camp Spring was birthed out of a vision of Pastor John H. Parker. He, being a man of prayer, had a desire to see Central Baptist Church become a "House of Prayer for all people." Pastor Parker, with the approval of the Deacon Board of Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs, appointed Reverend Dr. Betty Ross to head the Intercessory Prayer Ministry. The purpose of this Ministry is to equip the believer as to why and how to "stand in the gap," that is to intercede for the pastor, leadership, families, communities, schools, nations, President of United States, and all those who are in authority over us--pleading with the Lord for mercy to hold back the hand of God from consuming this Nation. The objectives are:

- Equip the believer with Biblical principles for understanding the importance of prayer;
- Understand how prayer is the union of the believer thoughts with the will of God;
- Understand how combining the power in prayer and the power in the Word of God results in renewed faith, victory, and answered prayer; and
- Understand that prayerlessness is a sin.

On July 31, 2011, at the 10:00 a.m. service, we celebrated our Sixth Annual All States Day--the States of Alabama and Georgia were the hosts. The theme was Reliving the Dream; Scripture: Joel 2:28. Reverend Mack H. Parker*, Pastor, The Good Ship Missionary Baptist Church, Millbrook, AL, and his choir were our guests.

On February 12, 2012, we lost our second leader, our earthly shepherd, Pastor John H. Parker, who brought in many who gave their lives to Christ. He will never be forgotten because he did so much for the congregation. He knew his members and was there for us to the very end. Now, we know he is looking down upon us, encouraging us in our spirit. We shall never forget him; he lived his life so boldly and impacted our lives so greatly.

On April 13, 2012, Reverend Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr., became Pastor-Elect of the Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs. What a glorious time for the congregation! The torch has been passed on spiritually from Pastor John H. Parker to Reverend Burruss. On June 23, 2012, Reverend Burruss was installed as Pastor of Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs.

Deceased*

Reverend Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr., Pastor April 13, 2012 - Present

Reverend Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr., was born on October 25, 1965, in Washington, D.C., to Sister Dorothy B. Burruss and Brother Lincoln M. Burruss, Sr.*; he is one of three children. Reverend Burruss is married to the former Angela Greenfield and is also the father of three children—Jada, Jalynn, and Javon.

At an early age, Reverend Burruss accepted Christ and was baptized at Rehoboth Baptist Church where he was a member of the Young Adult Choir and church drummer. Later, he joined Central Baptist Church--now Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs--where he sang with the Young Adult Choir, played the drums, taught Sunday School, served as the Youth Pastor, and conducted new members training.

Reverend Burruss graduated from the University of the District of Columbia and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. He attended the Maple Springs Baptist Bible College and Seminary and is currently pursuing a Master's and Doctorate in Biblical Studies at Trinity Theological Seminary in Newburg, Indiana. In 1991, Reverend Burruss became a licensed Minister and was ordained in 1998. In November 2008, Reverend Burruss was appointed and voted in as the Assistant Pastor, and on April 13, 2012, he was voted in as Pastor-Elect of the Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs.

On June 23, 2012, at the 11:00 a.m. service, the church held an Installation Service for Reverend Lincoln M. Burruss, Jr. The theme was Recognizing God's Divine Plan Blessed is the Man You Choose; Scripture: Psalm 65:4. Reverend Rodney Ruffin, Pastor, Elim Baptist Church, Temple Hill, MD, was the guest preacher. Many pastors/ministers from other churches were present, as well as legislative officials. Reverend Mack H. Parker*, brother of Reverend John H. Parker*, and Pastor of the Good Ship Baptist Church, Millbrook, AL, presented our new Pastor to the church. Oh, what a glorious occasion in the Lord, which transpired on that day!

Reverend Burruss also served as President of the Mount Bethel Baptist Educational Congress from 2012 to 2015. He was the youngest President to ever serve. He is a certified teacher of the Congress. Also, he holds the office of Youth Director of Mount Bethel Baptist Association. During his tenure, he organized the first City-Wide Annual Youth Prayer Breakfast and Forum for the Congress. He is currently employed as a project manager with The Computer Sciences Corporation in Lanham, MD.

Reverend Burruss is a child of God who loves the Lord with all his heart, mind, and soul. He is a diligent and dedicated soldier for the Lord and loves to teach and preach God's Word. His desire when he preaches and teaches is that you will get to know God's Word in your mind, stow it in your heart, show it in your life, and disseminate it in the world.

On July 15, 2012, Deacon James Blake was appointed by Pastor as the Chairman of the Deacon Board. Deacon Blake brings a wealth of experience to the position of Chairman. With the help of the Lord, we know he will do great things as the Chairman and will provide the commitment Pastor Burruss needs to fulfill his vision for the church.

Surely, we are pressing on to higher ground under the leadership of Pastor Burruss. One vision of Pastor Burruss is to create a Community Outreach Day, which he and the Evangelism Outreach Ministry organized. Our First Annual Community Day was held on August 25, 2012, 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., and each ministry participated, offering clothing and Christian literature to the community. We conducted praise and worship services through sermonettes; and the Anointed Expressions Mime Ministry, Muppet Ministry and Daughters of Judah liturgical dancers performed. Congressional, State and County officials were present and vendors; they made presentations and presented literature and token gifts to all. The theme was "Emulating the Love of Jesus." Much love was shown on that day and we were blessed mentally, physically, and spiritually.

Another one of Pastor Burruss' visions is to enhance our spiritual education with more than one Bible Study class. He organized five fourteen-week noon-day Bible Study classes and four 14-week evening classes, and on September 12, 2012 we began the Bible Study classes. Our theme, One Body in Christ and Scripture, Ephesians 4:12, “[F]or the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ,” tells us that “Ministry is God’s Work Done by God’s People.” Ministry is the calling, privilege and responsibility of every member of Christ’s body—the church. We are to serve others with all the gifts, resources and power that the Lord gives us. God gave gifts to each person to carry out His work (Romans 12:4-8).
